- Auditions are open to members and non-members. There is no audition fee.
- If you are chosen for a part and are not already a member of the Society, you will be required to become a full member and pay a full year's subscription of £25 (running until June 2027).
- All those cast will be required to pay an acting fee of £20.

Other commitments

Please list any significant commitments (e.g. other shows, work and personal diary dates) that may impact your availability between 8 July and 22 November 2026.

If offered a part, I agree not to take on any other commitments that would necessitate missing rehearsals without prior consultation with the Society.

Signed:

Please return to the Production Manager by the end of Thursday 2 July.
